

REGIONAL SUPPORT WORKER ROADSHOW

SELF DIRECTED SUPPORT & PERSON CENTRED PRACTICE

GERALDTON

PRESENTED BY ERIN FULTON & CHARLOTTE VAN DER BURGT

The Regional Support Worker Roadshow consists of two one day workshops. The workshops are aimed at getting Support Workers up to speed with the essential elements of Self-Directed Support and Person Centred Practice. This training is ideal for Support Workers who are employed by the person and/or their family or employed by an organisation. This would suit champion Support Workers who can share their learning with colleagues.

Workshop 1—The fundamentals of self direction and person centred practice

- Understanding the National Disability Insurance Scheme
- Person centred values and approaches
- Supported Decision Making

Workshop 2—Peoples lives and people outcomes

- Understanding Outcomes and why they matter
- Supporting people to lead full lives, not just supplying support
- Critical thinking skills

You can register to come for one or two days!!!

22 & 23 NOVEMBER 2016 9.00AM—4.00PM

ABOUT THE PRESENTERS:

Erin Fulton has worked for over 10 years in the equality and diversity arena within the UK and during that time has had the privilege of working with some inspiring individuals who were adamant that their voices should and would be heard. Erin has been working to support organisations to work in partnership with people and families in policy and practice development. Most recently Erin has been working with individuals to explore appropriate safeguarding strategies for them to ensure that they can live the life that they choose whilst maximising their opportunities and safety and the safety of others.

Charlotte Van der Burgt has worked in the disability sector for over 16 years commencing as a support worker herself, continuing onto senior management roles within the sector and holds the position of Individualised Services Advisor with WAIIS. Charlotte has connected with people and families in many regional areas of WA through her various work roles and is loving the opportunity to reconnect with regional areas again.
