

Easy Read training

- ✓ What is Easy Read?
- ✓ Why is it important?
- ✓ When do you use it?
- ✓ How do you use it?

Join us for Easy Read training and find out the answers to these questions and more!

WAiS and the Information Access Group are partnering to present Easy Read training to WAiS members and guests on 11 or 12 May.

The one day workshop will help you to:

- develop an understanding of the communication needs of a range of audiences, in particular people with an intellectual disability and adults with low levels of literacy
- develop skills in producing Easy Read materials.

Dates: Either Thursday 11 or Friday 12 May

Time: 10 am to 4 pm

Location: Coode Street Café Function Room,
24 Coode St, Mount Lawley WA 6050

Morning tea and lunch will be provided.
Please advise of any dietary requirements
when booking.

Please bring along a document that you would like to make easy to read.

Book now!

The training is FREE for WAiS members. A few spots will be reserved for non-members at a very affordable price, please contact us to discuss this.

Places are limited, so please book as soon as possible.

About the presenter

Lyndall Thomas is the Director of the Information Access Group. She has been producing Easy Read materials since 2009 and is an expert in the field. Her popular Easy Read training workshops are fun, informative and very hands-on. She loves to get you thinking about how you can change your writing style to suit your audience and making sure you know how to put the training into practice.
